MEMBERS' HANDOUT

FOOD :: RESILIENCE :: COMMUNITY

Become a member of the vfi

Vertical Farming is a necessary development to relieve stress from the global food production system, we believe in the great potential that urban food production has to offer. In order to set constructive strides towards a more resilient future we need to work together. We invite you to join us in our endeavours and help us make food production part of daily urban life again.

We want to connect with you and highly value your input. Our goal behind our memberships is to enlarge and strengthen our active community. We want to provide the space for you to step up with any questions, suggestions, comments, initiatives, and ideas.

We appreciate that you are interested to join the vertical farm institute as a member. This handout presents an overview of the different types of membership we have to offer. We hope that one of the types will suit you and that we will meet each other soon.
